REPORT

One Day Awareness Program on Sexual Harassment through Social Media

One day awareness program on "Sexual Harassment through Social Media" was successfully organized by the Internal Complaint Committee (ICC) of Seth Narsingdas Mor Arts and Commerce & Smt. Godavari devi Saraf Science College, Tumsar, District Bhandara, under the aegis of the Gondia Education Society. The initiative aimed to educate and create awareness among student particularly young women about online threats, legal safe guards, and personal safety in the digital age.

The program was anchored by Mrs. Rajni Gaydhane, who set an engaging tone for the proceedings and formally introduced the esteemed guests. Dr. B. D. Katekhaye, Head of the Department of Home Economics and Presiding officer of the ICC, delivered the introductory address, in which she explained the core purpose, role, and importance of the Internal Complaint Committee in maintaining a safe, supportive, and grievance-free academic environment for all students.

The Chief Guest of the program, Ms. Prachi Sapkal, Police Sub-Inspector (PSI) at Tumsar Police Station, delivered an insightful address focusing on legal awareness. She educated the students about the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, digital safety practices, and the legal mechanisms available to report and prevents online harassment. Following her, guest speaker and social worker Mrs. Meera Bhat provided valuable guidance on social dynamics, offering actionable advice to young women on navigating societal challenges safely and living with confidence, self-reliance, and vigilance.

In his presidential address, Dr. R. J. Bhagat, Principal of the college, shared his rich administrative and life experiences with the audience. He urged the students to stay alert against digital traps, maintain high personal awareness, and utilize campus resources whenever in doubt. The program concluded with a formal vote of thanks delivered by Prof. Ritu Tutkar, who expressed heartfelt gratitude to the management, guest speakers, organizers, and student attendees for making the event a meaningful success. Total 98 students and 25 teaching and non- teaching staff attended this program.

Ms. Prachi Sapkal, Police Sub-Inspector Police Station, Tumsar is addressing the students.

Mrs. Meera Bhat guest speaker and social worker, Tumsar is addressing the students.

Dr. R. J. Bhagat Principal of S. N. Mor College Tumsar is addressing the students.

Mrs Rajni Gaydhane member of ICC of S. N. Mor College Tumsar hosting program.

Group photo of Internal Complaint Committee of S. N. Mor College Tumsar with Guests.

Students and staff of S. N. Mor College Tumsar during Program