Report (MSFDA) – 25.8.2022 to 27.8.2022

Our full time faculty member, Asst. Prof. Amol Khandwe attended a three day Faculty In-Service Program on Inclusive Education held by Maharashtra State Faculty Development Academy (MSFDA), Pune in association with Xavier's Resource Centre for Visually Challenged (XRCVC), St. Xavier's College (Autonomous), Mumbai during 25th August to 27th August 2022 at MSFDA Campus, Pune.

In the inauguration function, Dr Ajiel Telave, Coordinator, MSFDA and Dr Anju Uppal, Joint Director, MSFDA were present. They shared the idea behind setting up MSFDA and organizing this three day program. Dr Sam Taraporwalah, Director XRCVC also joined the function online and deliberated on the need of inclusive education for person with disabilities.

During those three days, extensive sessions on different types of disabilities were held by the resource persons Ms Poonam and Ms Shizhan D'mello from XRCVC Mumbai. The resource persons conducted sessions on the types of disabilities, types of assistive technologies for each type of disabilities and gave information about various laws regarding the rights for the disable person. On the last day Dr Nipun Vinayak, the Director of MSFDA visited the participants and had an interaction with them about their overall experience and the outcome of the program.
